Chamber of Commerce Board Room

Call to Order: Polly Hatter - Chair

Welcome of Guests: Jaymie Latham – Creative Industries

Attendance: Rae, Michelle, Katie, Nick, Polly

Discussion, Approvals and Business

1. Welcome to our guest Jayme Latham from Creative Industries
2. Safety Update
 - (i) That the Chief of Police will have an officer and two students from CTS on bicycles Downtown from 9-11AM
 - (ii) Metrocaid and Parking Garage – there is a frustration with the City in getting a deal for parking spaces. Information was sent to Dave Jackowski then sent onto Bev Hillier. Ian Kilgour is working on the situation
 - (iii)
3. Beautification update
 - (i) David Thompson Pop Ups on private property – City wanted infrastructure to be put into place. Project put on hold
 1. AMO Grant – Do we have to spend and install before March 2020?
 - (i) Mural Submission – Chief Lady Bird submitted a quote to add to the Mural on the side of the building to be worked on during Culture Days of September 27-29th – see quote attached – Committee state to process a $1000 deposit
 - (ii) Chelsea Reid to complete the balance of the art work on Oak Street at the Potters Guild
 - (iv) Main Priority is DNSSNB and the Alley Ways – work with Creative Industries on a partnership agreement.
4. Little Library – our summer student Rebbecca has put together a campaign for Little Library's on Main Street. Little Library's has a copyright and cannot be used for naming purposes. Group agreed upon Downtown's Book Nook. Installation is planned for end of August. We are working on getting the Nugget Vending Boxes for the winter campaign. The three partners are North Bay Library, Allison the Bookman and Nipissing Literacy.
5. Christmas Decorations - need to talk with Chris Tucker as Alley way Lightning – approx. $20K-50K
